

IMPACT

Workshop Output

1st National Convention

耶穌會華菲使徒工作

Chinese-Filipino Apostolate
Philippine Province of the Society of Jesus

*"Facing
New Frontiers with Fire and in Friendship"*

IMPACT

In fidelity to Ignatian principles, to seek greater impact by assisting in the formation and training of leaders and ministers who serve China and the Chinese both within and beyond Jesuit institutions.

"Facing New Frontiers with Fire and in Friendship"

STOP

Assuming

that people are knowledgeable about issues in the CFA

"Facing New Frontiers with Fire and in Friendship"

CONTINUE

1. Deepening the collaboration with Lorenzo Mission Institute
 - o Financial support esp for Chinese seminarians (Php40,000 per year per seminarian); fundraising concert featuring Chinese music in order to promote the language as well
 - o Programs for our youth, tapping the energy and expertise of the seminarians
2. Networking for exchange of ideas (e.g., meetings like this)

"Facing New Frontiers with Fire and in Friendship"

START

1. Compiling materials materials for training/orientation: history of the community, issues under “Intersections” ; apostolate-wide and within institution
 - o can include catechetical materials in Chinese from HK and Taiwan, if relevant to the institution
2. Create a committee/resource group on different areas of the Chinese Apostolate (e.g., liturgy and Chinese rituals, cultural sensitivities, ethical issues, etc.)
3. Formation program for ministers to the Chinese-Filipino apostolate
 - o Organize apostolate-wide “Trainer’s Training” of lay mission partners, clergy including those beyond our institutions
 - o Integrate Chinese-Filipino apostolate concerns into faculty formation in Jesuit education (pre- and in-service training, faculty development)

“Facing New Frontiers with Fire and in Friendship”

